"It's Gonna Be A Happy Day!"

Ayala Malls Theme (2020)

Composed by Ryan Cayabyab

Sung by Reese Lansangan

Lyrics:

You can see it in my eyes
Can you feel it when I smile?
It's gonna be a happy day

And then when I pass you by
With a kick ball change in my stride
It's gonna be a happy day

It's gonna be
One of those days
When the world just stops for you
I'm feeling free
And come what may
I know that this is the moment
I have waited for

It's gonna be a happy day
Everyday for me
It's gonna be a happy day
Everyone will agree
And if I ever ruled the world for a day
I will declare every day an amazing day
It's gonna be a happy day
For me
And you, if you want it too
All you gotta do is say it, claim it, sing it
Kick your heels and dance it, yeah

You can see it in my eyes
Can you feel it when I smile?
It's gonna be a happy day

And then when I pass you by
With a kick ball change in my stride
It's gonna be a happy day
It's gonna be
One of those days
When the world just stops for you
I'm feeling free
And come what may
I know that this is the moment
I have waited for

It's gonna be a happy day
Everyday for me
It's gonna be a happy day
Everyone will agree
And if I ever ruled the world for a day
I will declare every day an amazing day
For me

And if I ever ruled the world for a day
I will declare every day an amazing day
It's gonna be a happy day for me
(it's gonna be an amazing day)
It's gonna be a happy day
For me and you, if you want it too
Kick your heels and dance it, awaken amazing
That's it
Yeah
